

Join the Peabody Museum Association

and enjoy a variety of programs and benefits. Your contribution funds many worthwhile projects including an internship program, rotating exhibits, and visiting lectures, as well as researchers who come to study our vast collections.

Whether you are renewing your membership or joining for the first time, we welcome your participation in what promises to be a unique and memorable museum experience.

THE MUSEUM of ARCHAEOLOGY & ETHNOLOGY

Peabody

THE Peabody

- was founded in 1866 by George Peabody and is one of the oldest museums in the world devoted to anthropology.
- has one of the most comprehensive collections of North American archaeology and ethnology in the world.
- has the only artifacts known to have survived from the Lewis and Clark Expedition of 1804–06.
- has important collections from South America, including over 5,000 ancient Peruvian textiles.
- has the finest archaeological documentation of the Maya as well as the most extensive and varied collection of Mesoamerican artifacts and sculpture outside Mexico.
- has early and rare historical collections from the Pacific Islands, especially Hawaii, Fiji, and Tonga.
- has one of the ten largest photographic archives, documenting the cultures of indigenous peoples across the world.
- has a strong relationship to indigenous communities whose histories and cultures are reflected in the collections.
